Attention All Women:
There’s Something New For You

A new bible study for women will be starting Oct. 1 at 7:00pm at Bethel church. We will start off the time together with a worship song and prayer. Then we will dive into the Beth Jones book “Brave: Living a Fearless Life”
From the website for the book: “ARE YOU READY TO TAP INTO GOD’S POWER FOR A COURAGEOUS, CONFIDENT AND BRAVE LIFE?”
In today’s changing world where terror, phobias and high anxiety want to keep us paralyzed, God has a better plan. He wants to empower us to live a fearless life! In Brave, we’ll study God’s Word to see how being free from the fear of death allows us to really live. We’ll learn how living a life to please God, rather than living under the fear of man gives us the liberty to be the people God has called us to be. We’ll understand why and how we can trust the Lord when the fears of danger and change try to hinder us from moving forward.
God wants us to live a life full of peace and love, courage and faith and in Brave, you will learn how to experience these things in practical ways.

Who will be leading this you might be asking? Diana Bilderback and Julie Cusick will be your fearless guides.

What about Sunday? The Purple Group will be morphing into Support On Sunday (SOS). It will be fellowship time for anyone who needs to talk to listening ears about difficulties encountered during the week, extra prayer or just conversation. We will be in Fellowship Hall from 9:30-10:20 am on Sundays.

UMW Fundraiser

To be held on Tuesday, October 13th at 6:30pm in the Fellowship Hall at Bethel UMC. Cost: $30.00. Refreshments and punch will be provided. Kim will instruct us on the painting, pictured to the left, and will provide all materials necessary. We can accommodate 24 painters so be sure to sign up each person in your group who will paint. A sign-up sheet is posted on UMW bulletin board.

As I write this message, final preparations are being made for the second GOP Presidential Debate. Tonight we will watch and listen (those who will be watching and listening) to these candidates attempt to outline their perspectives on important topics in the life of our nation and the world. They will be explaining to us why they are the right one to support in an effort to become President of the United States. There are others in the Democratic party, the Libertarian party, and possibly more for other parties who are attempting to throw their hat into the ring. As Christians, we really need to know a few things in order to make our decisions about the upcoming election and about life in general as followers of Christ. Jude has a timely Word for us and I believe it is worth hearing and heading. The following Scripture excerpts from the book of Jude are from Eugene Peterson’s translation called “The Message” (highlighted or italicized portions are from me).

1-2 I, Jude, am a slave to Jesus Christ and brother to James, writing to those loved by God the Father, called and kept safe by Jesus Christ. Relax, everything’s going to be all right; rest, everything’s coming together; open your hearts, love is on the way!

3-4 Dear friends, I’ve dropped everything to write you about this life of salvation that we have in common. I have to write insisting—begging!—that you fight with everything you have in you for this faith entrusted to us as a gift to guard and cherish. What has happened is that some people have infiltrated our ranks (our Scriptures warned us this would happen), who beneath their pious skin are shameless scoundrels. Their design is to replace the sheer grace of our God with sheer license—which means doing away with Jesus Christ, our one and only Master...

17-19 But remember, dear friends, that the apostles of our Master, Jesus Christ, told us this would happen: “In the last days there will be people who don’t take these things seriously anymore. They’ll treat them like a joke, and make a religion of their own whims and lusts.” These are the ones who split churches, thinking only of themselves. There’s nothing to them, no sign of the Spirit!

20-21 But you, dear friends, carefully build yourselves up in this most holy faith by praying in the Holy Spirit, staying right at the center of God’s love, keeping your arms open and outstretched, ready for the mercy of our Master, Jesus Christ. This is the unending life, the real life!

22-23 Go easy on those who hesitate in the faith. Go after those who take the wrong way. Be tender with sinners, but not soft on sin. The sin itself stinks to high heaven.

24-25 And now to Him who can keep you on your feet, standing tall in His bright presence, fresh and celebrating—to our one God, our only Savior, through Jesus Christ, our Master, be glory, majesty, strength, and rule before all time, and now, and to the end of all time. Yes.

Yes, indeed! None of this is a surprise to the Lord; God is still in control and we have nothing to fear or worry about if we abide in Him! Let us seek Him and His wisdom to make the choices which will lead to life for all people and the very Spirit of God will lead us into the future in this life and in the life to come! Amen! Blessings Always, PB

New way of giving now available

The ACH payment system has now been implemented here at Bethel. What this means is you can now give to Bethel through debiting your bank account. If you are familiar with this system through your bill paying, it is the same process. If you decide to give your offering using this option, there are forms in the Narthex that you can fill out. This debiting will continue until you decide to cancel it. This is not replacing anything; it's simply just another way for you to give. If you have questions or need help with the forms see Dave Hord or Dawn Roberts.

Singing God's Praises

Thirteen people had a joyful time singing God's praises at the first choir rehearsal on September 10th. There is always room for more who would like to praise God in song. We meet every Thursday evening, 6:30-7:30 p.m. in the music room off of Fellowship Hall. Come whenever you can. We will be singing in both worship services on Sunday, October 4th, World Communion Sunday. Looking forward to singing and sharing the STORY with you. Barb Cross and Jan Roberts

Academy of Lay Ministries ~ Fall 2015

Two people from Bethel, Katie Robinson and Kathy Smith, have responded to God's call to grow spiritually; in faith, knowledge, leadership, caring, and communication at the Academy of Lay Ministries. Katie is participating in the Basic Class and Kathy is a student in the Evangelism Class. Share a blessing together with them by asking about this spiritual growth experience. All are invited to the Commitment Service on Sunday, October 11th, 4:00 p.m., at Covenant UMC, 10001 Coldwater Road, Fort Wayne, IN 46825.

Thank you to all of the congregation for the multiple years that you have donated glasses to help those that have none. All the glasses go to the volunteers and service to humanity who make mission trips to Cuba and Central America. We have contributed as a congregation well over 1000 pairs of glasses to help others. Speaking for all of them, we all thank you. ~Jim Long

Thank you to all who expressed sympathy in the passing of my dad. I appreciated every kind word, hug, card, and especially your prayers. ~God bless you and yours. Cheryl Nicolet

BETHEL SUNDAY SCHOOL

A Look Into What's Coming In October For Sunday School

Christian Home Builders-(Room S6)- Leader-Barb Cross
“For God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but a spirit of power, of love and of self -discipline.” (2 Timothy 1:7, NIV)

All are welcome to join us as we thank God for guiding us by the Holy Spirit and enabling us as a Christian Community to come alive. The four lessons in this unit continue to follow the development of the early church as Jesus’ followers proclaimed the source of true power, preached and taught faithfully about Jesus, earned the right to be heard, took risks for the sake of the gospel, and trusted God’s Spirit to lead and empower them. May we be courageous disciples for Jesus Christ.

THE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY COMES ALIVE

Unit 2	Giving Bold Testimony		Purpose
October 4	The Spirit Is Not for Sale	Acts 8:9-24	To embrace the power of the Holy Spirit.
October 11	Saul Earns Credibility	Acts 9:19-31	To affirm the radical, transforming power of God to change lives.
October 18	Peter Takes a Risk	Acts 10:24-38
October 25	Trusting the Spirit	Acts 11:1-18	To confirm that God’s call to salvation is to all people.

Seekers of the Covenant (Room S5)- Leader- Jeff Cusick
The Seekers class just finished Adam Hamilton’s Christian study called Seeing Gray in a World of Black and White: Thoughts on Religion, Morality, and Politics. This study gave us great insight into how different people look at today’s controversial issues. We recently started a new book called The Ten Commandments from the Backside. This book was written by J. Ellsworth Kalas and is a fresh look at The Ten Commandments. In the coming weeks, we will look at each commandment, discuss its history and talk about its application in today’s world. If you are interested in how The Ten Commandments continue to be the foundation of our Christian beliefs and continue to enrich our faith and understanding, please join us after 2nd service. We usually start around 9:45.

Koinonia (Room S7) Leader-Shared leadership between members
In October, the Koinonia Class will continue their study of “Heroes, Rogues, and the Rest,” a study of the Bible through its personalities, by J. Ellsworth Kalas. The topics that we will discuss are “Abraham & Sarah: Pioneers of Promise,” “Jacob and His Kin: The Uses of Dysfunction,” “Moses: Freedom to Obey,” and “Samuel: The Purposes of Government.” The nuggets of truth that we glean from these ancient biographies help us live Christian lives in our contemporary world

Bishop Mike Coyner's E-Pistle

"Driving on Route 66"

Yesterday was my birthday, and I am now 66 years old. When my son, Steve, wished me Happy Birthday, I responded by saying, "Yes, 66 really sounds old." To which he replied, "It doesn't just sound old, it is old." And so my birthday went. We had a nice gathering of family, some nice gifts and cake and such. In the middle of it all, my two month old grandchild Alec pooped all over me. He even smiled and cooed while doing it, as if he knew his diaper was loose on the side. We all laughed, and it was a good celebration of being 66.

I can remember when age 65 was kind of a "magical" age to imagine and think about. 65 was when most people would retire. 65 was "old" (at least it seemed like it when I was my son's age). 65 was Social Security and Medicare (of course now for my age group, 66 is the new 65 for Social Security). 65 was when I imagined I would retire. The first pin number I ever chose for an ATM machine had 65 in it – just so I could remember it.

66 is not an age which conjures any such kind of special interest. 66 reminds me more of the old TV show called "Route 66" named after that U.S. highway which stretches across the country. Some people still make it a point to drive on Route 66 for nostalgia. So I guess the best thing I can do with the number 66 is to think of this year as a new route for my life, another chapter, another aspect of living and traveling through time.

This year is also the year that I am heading toward my retirement. As bishops we retire on September 1st and on a 4-year cycle called a quadrennium. When I was elected a bishop in 1996 at age 46, I knew I would be serving for 20 years (sounds like a prison term when I say it that way), and would retire at age 66 and then turn 67 a few days later. The General Conference raised our mandatory retirement age so I technically could serve until 2020, but I believe that retiring in 2016 fulfills my original commitment and makes more sense for me personally. So, "Route 66" is my year of traveling toward retirement. My daughter, Laura, even gave me a "retirement countdown clock" for my birthday – so I can set it for September 1, 2016, and watch the months, days, minutes, and seconds count down. Or, I can simply use it as a desk clock to tell time.

Time is funny thing. Some days I can't believe I am this age, and I think of myself as being about 35 (until I look in a mirror and see myself). Other days the years are heavy, and I feel the aches and pains and memories of 66 years. Time is relative according to science, and that has certainly been my experience. Some days and some meetings drag along like eternity, and some events and some years go by very quickly.

The Biblical view of "time" is different. Time is not just "chronos" (the Greek word from which comes chronology), time is also "Kairos" which is all about "the right time." Jesus used "time" in the latter sense. He declared, "The time is now, the kingdom of God is near, repent and believe the Gospel." He understood himself to be sent into the world at the "right time."

During my years of life I often have been compulsive about chronology, but I have also looked for the "right time" (Kairos) to see God at work. I expect my driving on "Route 66" this year to be more about Kairos than Chronology. A count-down clock cannot measure the importance of any particular moment; only a sense of God's presence and Kingdom can do that. And so ... the journey continues, and the opportunities to encounter God's will are endless. I am grateful for each moment and each birthday, but I look for a longer and deeper understanding of time.
